Letter from Gillett.

GILLETT, June 21, 1878.

I write you from a very quiet town. It is said, and truly, that "after a storm comes a calm." The sensation made us unusually lively for a time. As I had not time to write you at the leaving of the stage, I requested Dr. Thibodo to detail the facts to you, and as they are published in your paper, they are substantially correct. And by the way of digression, the Dr. won golden opinions here. I believe he said, however, that during the shooting, he exposed himself until he was as thick as a wafer, and presented but a small target for a bullet.

The affair was a sad one. I think the whole community unite in the opinion that the man is straight, go his just deserts, but all deplore the killing of Col. Taylor. If, as the authorities seem to believe, parties implicated in the stage robbery took advantage of the time, place and circumstances, to murder the Colonel, all good citizens hope the assassins will be punished. In justice to the parties who were arrested here, it is proper to say that the unanimous belief among those who know them, that of most, if not all of them, it seems impossible that they should be guilty of such a crime.

Our mill is stopped just now for lack of water, but the energetic superintendent, Mr. Webber, is doing what should have been done at first; sinking a well to serve during low water. It is near completion, and the mill will soon be turning out bullion again.

The Tiptop ore is looking better than ever, and the other mines in the vicinity are very promising. The '76 is turning out ore that is almost bullion. Mr. Thos. Barnum, of your valley, and his partner, have developed a promising prospect. The rock that has lately been taken from the different leads, has exceeded expectations.

The tin mines of Maricopa county, a few miles from us, are looking finely, and the incredulous are fast becoming convinced that they are a verity, and that the city of Richmond may yet compete with Phenix for the County seat and the Capital. Look out for the growing rival.

We are having some hot weather here, 110 degrees in the shade, and daily improving. Look to your laurels or we shall distance you.

The consolation for the rich is, that a summer's experience here, will enable them to defy the Plataian authorities.

In politics we are quiet. As most of the people are Democrats, the only fear that if Col. Woolsey and Mr. Campbell continue in the field that Mr. St. Vrain will slip between. All believe them both to be worthy gentlemen, and calculated to do honor to the Territory, and hope that some arrangement may be made by which the aforesaid contingency may be avoided.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

The Board of Supervisors of Yavapai county meet Monday.

The steamer caught fire on the 10th. The damage was slight.

Gen. Wm. Vandever, late Indian Inspector, is again in Arizona. Chas. Cruz, Jr., Secretary of the Toltec Syndicate of Mines, has arrived in Tucson.

W. V. Wool has been appointed Postmaster at Camp Thomas, Pima county, Arizona.

Four teams loaded with poles for the Military Telegraph line to be used east of Stinwix, have left Yuma.

The McCracken mill turned out nearly $50,000 in silver bars, during the month of May, ranging in fineness from 915 to 960.

Specimens of ore shown from the St. Louis mine, in the Apache district, are of a light green color, and give evidence of richness.

First Lieut. H. R. Haskell has been ordered to proceed to Los Angeles and inspect the money accounts of the paymaster at that point.

The order assigning Major Henry R. Mizner to the command of Camp Verde has been revoked. Injustice to orders calling for his services elsewhere.

The telegraph office in Tucson, now under the very satisfactory management of Mr. Phillips, has been gradually increasing its business for several months past.

Mr. Hunter, from Pueblo Viejo, has arrived in Globe with a load of potatoes, turnips and onions. They were in demand. He reports crops on the Gila as promising an abundant yield.

Travelers to Signal can get there by stage from Dos Palmas, via Wickenburg. Between Signal and Wickenburg is a regular conveyance, leaving the latter place every Monday morning.

The Citizen states that it is in contemplation by substantial men to start a new paper in Tucson, and the Enterprise says the democrats have about concluded to start a paper of their own at Yuma.

The Miami mill for the short time it has been running has reduced forty-one different lots of ore which has averaged from pulp assay $244.15 per ton, and produced 21 bars of bullion containing 26,013 ounces silver.

A well has been started at the Forks of the road from Planet to Sigil, eleven miles from Planet, by Colonel Chas. Whipple, late of San Diego, and formerly Colonel of the 19th Infantry Wisconsin Volunteers. If he strikes water, the well will pay big, besides being of great service to Mohave county.

The Tucson Star says: Lieut. Rucker found the remains of two men about 35 miles south of San Simon Canyon, in the Steens-Peck range, supposed to be the remains of John Bryson and C. O'Neil, who went out to hunt a coal mine just after the Chiricahua Indians were removed to San Carlos two years ago, and were never after heard from.

The Haskin Isabella mining company have been taking out some very fine silver ore the past ten days. Most of the ore now coming out of the mine will sell for hundred dollars to the ton. The company have out three hundred tons ready for the mill now building, and intend to have out five hundred tons by the time the mill is finished. All connected with the enterprise are very sanguine of success.

Do not forget that

It having been determined that the location of the recent stage robbery was not in Yavapai county, Deputy U. S. Marshal Evans left by this morning's stage for Yuma, taking with him Jack Swilling and Andrew Kirby, charged with the crime. To settle the location, U. S. Surveyor G. B. Foster, was sent to Wickenburg, and made a survey of the county line, and telegraphed the result of his findings, which occasioned the hasty departure of the Marshal. This invalidates the action of the Grand Jury and examination before the Commissioner, and will necessitate new proceedings in Yuma, entailing costs which witnesses are unable to bear and a general upturning in the calculations of the officers who have been unusually active in working up the case—Prescott Enterprise.
